

Course Offerings

2019 – 2020

Academic Year

This list shows all courses offered for the current academic year. Some information may be incomplete at the time of posting, but we will update the list as new information becomes available.

Auditing Courses: Most courses are available for audit by alumni and spouses—and anyone else—at the reduced audit fee of $48 per credit hour. Alumni may audit some language courses in order to refresh their knowledge of these languages for ministry purposes, but in general language and homiletics courses, internships, practicums, independent studies, graduate seminars, and other courses highly specific to our degree programs are not available for audit. Courses NOT eligible for audit are marked **.

Learning Modes: Courses listed as “On-Campus Courses” take place entirely on our St. Louis campus. Courses listed as “Online Courses” are offered entirely online. Courses listed as “Hybrid Courses” are offered in a mostly online format but also require some portion of the course to be taken on our St. Louis campus in an intensive weekend or week-long format.

For more information, contact our Admissions office at admissions@covenantseminary.edu or apply online at www.covenantseminary.edu/admissions/apply-now.

Addictions (CO532-S)

Dates: January 6 – 17

Days/Times: Monday – Friday, 8:30 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Instructor(s): Prof. David Koch, Visiting Instructor in Applied Theology and Counseling

Credit: 3 units

Description: Most of us live on the edge of addiction of one sort or another. We'll take a bird's-eye view of addiction in general, use chemical dependency as a paradigm for dealing with addiction, explore contemporary scientific models of understanding and treating addictions, and reflect on biblical teaching on the topic, especially on how "common grace wisdom" in psychology and medicine can be used within a Christian worldview to help people break free from the grip of addiction.

Sense and Sexuality (CO-561-S)

Dates: January 6 – 17

Days/Times: Monday – Friday, 8:30 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Instructor(s): Dr. Richard Winter, Professor Emeritus of Counseling

Credit: 3 units

Description: Sex is a powerful force for creativity, love, and goodness or for destructiveness, deceit, and evil. The Bible has a wonderfully high view of sexuality, which is designed to give us a taste of relationship with God. How are we brainwashed by the vivid and powerful cultural messages about sex and our bodies? What has the Bible to say about how we should care for our bodies? What has the Bible to say about sexuality in a world where "anything goes"? What is the relevance of the incarnation, resurrection, and union of Christ with the church to our sexuality? How can we move toward purity in singleness and marriage? Now that the overwhelming flood of pornography is so easily available on the Internet, most young men and women are learning about sex, love, and relationships in all the wrong places. How can we protect ourselves and help those caught in sexual compulsion and addiction? This course will explore the answers to these questions.

Contemporary Issues in Evangelical Theology (DM878)

Dates: January 6 – 10

Days/Times: Monday, 12 – 5 p.m.; Tuesday – Thursday, 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.; Friday, 9 a.m. – noon

Instructor(s): Dr. Dan Doriani, Professor of Biblical and Systematic Theology

Credit: 4 units

Description: This course explores the connections between theology and ethics. After reviewing the way heroes of the Reformation linked strong theology and social reform, the course explores the heritage of Calvin and Kuyper in the context of the one kingdom/two kingdom debate. The course next explores issues that require theological and practical reflection: work, gender and sexuality, creation care, body care, and a joint project developing a theology of the media.

Ministry to Emerging Generations (EM528-S)

Dates: January 6 – 9

Days/Times: Monday – Thursday, 8:30 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Instructor(s): Prof. Danny Mitchell, Visiting Instructor in Educational Ministries

Credit: 2 units

Description: Offered in Partnership with Mission to the World's NEXT Institute, this course will consider the intersections of various perspectives regarding theological grounds for ministry in relation to the formation and execution of local, contextualized ministry goals. Participants will gain an overview of the various ideological, sociological, cultural, and developmental tools necessary to contextualize their own areas of ministry, and will interact with a variety of models, methodological examples, and real-world practitioners as they develop missiological imaginations for the emerging generations

Greek II (NT304)

Dates: January 6 – 17

Days/Times: Monday – Friday, 8:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Instructor(s): Dr. Robert Yarbrough, Professor of New Testament

Credit: 2 units

Description: Grammatical study of biblical Greek. Prescribed for entering MDiv and MAET students without previous Greek knowledge. Students seeking to complete the MDiv in three years or the MAET in two years must take these courses in the summer session prior to beginning their regular fall program.

Hebrew II (OT304)

Days/Times: Monday – Friday, 9 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Instructor(s): Dr. Brian Aucker, Professor of Old Testament

Credit: 2 units

Description: Grammar fundamentals of biblical Hebrew.

Disciplines of Grace (AT563-S)

Dates: January 13 – 17

Days/Times: Monday – Friday, 8:30 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Instructor(s): Dr. Scotty Smith, Adjunct Professor of Applied Theology

Credit: 2 units

Description: This course will seek to build a vision and strategy for gospel-centered discipleship that relies on the power of the gospel instead of self-effort and moral reformation. Students will study and practice the means of grace and many of the classic spiritual disciplines. Special attention is given to the "Sonship" model of World Harvest Mission.

Millennials, Ministry, and the Survival of the Church (DM858)

Dates: January 13 – 17

Days/Times: Monday, 12 – 5 p.m.; Tuesday – Thursday, 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.; Friday, 9 a.m. – noon

Instructor(s): Dr. Tasha Chapman, Professor of Educational Ministries, with guest instructors John Seel and Aimee Byrd.

Credit: 4 units

Description: This course is designed to help students engage the shifting social and ecclesial context in which we commend and defend our Christian faith. John Seel will introduce us to the "frame shift" that millennials carry and the church is moving through. He will also "report from the field" in terms of churches proving effective at ministry to millennials and within a changed and changing cultural frame. As a special focus within this course, and in light of both traditional wariness and more contemporary permissiveness, Amy Byrd will lead us in thinking about men and women as friends and serving alongside one another in ministry. Restricted to students in the DMIN Apologetics and Communication Cohort.
